For all Fellowship CIP Criteria

The table found at www.theinstitute.com.au outlines how to become a Fellow and the Fellowship Passport points allocation system. A total of 100 points and a minimum of two years' insurance/finance industry work experience are required to be eligible for election to Fellowship, demonstrated by a letter from your employer.

Applicants will be required to supply certified documentation supporting their application. Demonstrating a course has been satisfactorily completed. A certified copy is a photocopy of the original document with the signature and official stamp of an appropriate authority, e.g. solicitor, principal, doctor, police officer, indicating that they have sighted the original. A photocopy or fax of a certified copy is not acceptable.

Membership for Overseas Qualified Insurance Professionals

ANZIF offers membership arrangements for graduates with overseas qualifications. The Overseas Qualification Table found at www.theinstitute.com.au/overseasmembership lists all of the existing Institute membership arrangements for overseas graduates.

Privacy Statement

The Australian and New Zealand Institute of Insurance and Finance (the Institute) collects and stores your personal information for the purposes of providing membership services, providing education and training programs, improving and promoting products and services, meeting education regulatory reporting and compliance requirements, and promoting your membership status in various ways. For full details of our Privacy Policy refer to our website www.theinstitute.com.au/privacy. The Institute produces lists of members and CIPs to promote membership/CIP status for circulation within the insurance industry and in Institute publications (including in the Journal and on the Institute website). Please indicate if you do not wish to have your name included on such lists by emailing customerservice@theinstitute.com.au

Many employers support their staff membership. The Institute on occasions is asked to supply membership details to employers. Please indicate if you do not wish to have your results released to your employer by emailing customerservice@theinstitute.com.au, quoting your Master ID and advising that you do not agree to the Institute releasing your results to your membership details to your employer this year.

All Institute members are bound by the Institute's Constitution and Regulations and Code of Ethics and Standards of Professional Conduct. These can be accessed at www.theinstitute.com.au. Payment of the annual membership fees implies agreement to abiding by these Institute membership requirements.

Declaration

I declare that to the best of my knowledge the information supplied in this form is correct and complete. I acknowledge that the provision of incorrect information or documentation relating to my membership may result in withdrawal of my membership, at the discretion of the Institute. I agree to abide by the Institute's Constitution and Regulations and Code of Ethics and Standards of Professional Conduct.
