

Application for Corporate Supporter Program

The ANZIIF Corporate Supporter program seeks to build community understanding of insurance and promote the professionalism of the industry.

Corporate Supporters are a committed, proactive community of organisations contributing to the development of insurance and finance education and careers programs, investing in our industry and ensuring its future success.

All Corporate Supporters will be promoted in the Journal and on the Institute website. They will also receive a Corporate Supporter certificate for public display and an ANZIIF Corporate Supporter logo which can be included on the company's promotional material, stationery and website.
